The School holds the legal right to collect and use personal data relating to pupils and their families, and may also receive information regarding them from their previous school, LA and/or the Department for Education (DfE).

We collect and use personal data in order to meet legal requirements and legitimate interests set out in the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and UK law, including those in relation to the following:

Collecting pupil information

Whilst the majority of pupil information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with the General Data Protection Regulation, we will inform you whether you are required to provide certain pupil information to us or whether this will need pupil or parental consent, which we will contact you about accordingly.

Storing pupil data

Personal data relating to pupils and their families is stored in line with the Trust's GDPR Data Protection Policy. A copy of which can be found at:

www.npcat.org.uk

In accordance with the GDPR, the school does not store personal data indefinitely; data is only stored for as long as is necessary to complete the task for which it was originally collected. A full list of data retention periods is available in the Trust's GDPR Data Protection Policy.

Who we share pupil information with

We routinely share pupil information with:

- schools that the pupil attends after leaving us
- our Local Authority (LA)
- the Department for Education (DfE)
- The NHS

The LA, under strict information sharing protocols and policies, may be required to share this information with other public sector partners such as other Local Authorities or local Children's Centres.

Why we share pupil information

We do not share information about our pupils with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so. Data is always shared using secure methods.

The legal basis for sharing data with other schools and the LA is "the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the Data Controller."

We share pupils' data with the DfE on a statutory basis. This data sharing underpins school funding and educational attainment policy and monitoring.

We are required to share information about our pupils with the DfE under regulation 5 of The Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

Data collection requirements:

To find out more about the data collection requirements placed on us by the DfE (for example; via the school census) go to <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>.

If you are enrolling for post 14 qualifications we will be provided with your unique learner number (ULN) by the Learning Records Service and may also obtain from them details of any learning or qualifications you have undertaken. Further information regarding the Learning Records Service can be provided by (Insert school / AP / PRU contact details), or found at www.gov.uk/government/publications/lrs-organisation-portal/lrs-organisation-portal.

Youth support services

Pupils aged 13+

Once our pupils reach the age of 13 (or any other such age as is confirmed by the Government under the Data Protection Bill), we also pass pupil information to our LA and/or provider of youth support services as they have responsibilities in relation to the education or training of 13-19 year olds under section 507B of the Education Act 1996.

This enables them to provide services as follows:

- youth support services
- careers advisers
- post-16 education and training providers

A parent or guardian can request that only their child's name, address and date of birth is passed to their local authority or provider of youth support services by informing us. This right is transferred to the child/pupil once he/she reaches the age defined in GDPR.

The National Pupil Database (NPD)

The NPD is owned and managed by the DfE and contains information about pupils in schools in England. It provides invaluable evidence on educational performance to inform independent research, as well as studies commissioned by the Department. It is held in electronic format for statistical purposes. This information is securely collected from a range of sources including schools, local authorities and awarding bodies.

We are required by law, to provide information about our pupils to the DfE as part of statutory data collections such as the school census and early years' census. Some of this information is then stored in the NPD. The law that allows this is the Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

To find out more about the NPD, go to <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/national-pupil-database-user-guide-and-supporting-information>.

The department may share information about our pupils from the NPD with third parties who promote the education or well-being of children in England by:

- conducting research or analysis
- producing statistics

- providing information, advice or guidance

The DfE has robust processes in place to ensure the confidentiality of its data is maintained and there are stringent controls in place regarding access and use of the data. Decisions on whether DfE releases data to third parties are subject to a strict approval process and based on a detailed assessment of:

- who is requesting the data
- the purpose for which it is required
- the level and sensitivity of data requested: and
- the arrangements in place to store and handle the data

To be granted access to pupil information, organisations must comply with strict terms and conditions covering the confidentiality and handling of the data, security arrangements and retention and use of the data.
